THE UNION,
Box 512, ST. GEORGE,
Washington Co., UTAH.

Entered at the Post Office at St. George, Washington Co., Utah, as second class matter, March 27, 1896.

Saturday, December 12, 1896.

St. George is becoming known as a winter resort and many are fleeing here from the cold and stormy north. With railroad communication with the outside world these health-giving pilgrimages would be greatly increased.

There are people who are mean enough to say that President Cleveland's message to Congress this year is good in that it is the last which will come from that source. That sort of approval isn't much better than none at all.

Judge E. G. Woolley of this city has written a letter on the subject of Mr. Thatcher's deposition. Judge Woolley does not approve of that gentleman's course, seemingly. The letter was addressed to the Judge's sons, and was published in the Salt Lake Tribune and also in the Deseret News.

Our Panguitch correspondent claims that he has written us several letters which have not been published, but we wish to say that we have printed everyone we have received from him. There must be some one at fault somewhere, either at Panguitch or between there and this city, and the matter may yet be ferretted out by the postoffice inspector.

The Attorney General of Utah, Mr. Bishop, this week corrected an error which he made a while ago when he stated that the official bonds of the county officers of Washington County were to be submitted to the County Commissioners for approval. The bonds should be approved of by the Judge of the District Court. Mr. Bishop says the mistake was probably due to a lapseus lingue on his part while dictating the opinion to a typewriter.

At last the threatened election contest is on. A writ of prohibition was asked for in the Supreme Court at Salt Lake, Monday, by Judge M. L. Ritchie against the Board of State Canvassers, to prevent them from canvassing the returns of the recent election. The grounds alleged are that the election law was not properly passed by the Legislature and that the ballot was not secret as provided by the Constitution. The Board of State Canvassers is composed of State Auditor Morgan Richards, State Treasurer James Chipman and Attorney General A. C. Bishop. The writ was issued and made returnable at 10 o'clock yesterday, when arguments were probably made. A great deal of fault has been found with this alleged secret ballot, and the thing should be disposed of now before more trouble results. The Legislature in framing this law had the will, no doubt, but its way of going about it seems to have been a poor one.

You bet it makes the chickens lay when Booth's Store says, "15 cents per dozen paid for eggs."

Hon. Swen. O. Nielson's Trouble.

A letter from the Hon. Swen O. Nielson to Gov. Thomas, received last evening, bears the sorrowful news of the death of Mr. Nielson's babe on the Chicago & Rock Island train, on the night of the 28th ult., near Phillipsburg, Kan. Mr. and Mrs. Nielson were on their way to Chicago on a pleasure trip, and were having a comfortable trip up to that night; they had no premonition of the sorrow coming upon them, but about 3 in the morning the mother woke to find the babe dead in her arms.

Mr. and Mrs. Nielson started back at once, and are expected to arrive at their home in Fairview on Tuesday evening. Sympathetic friends throughout Utah will mourn with them.—Tribune.

Mrs. Nielson is the daughter of Mr. William Atkin of this city, and her many friends here will deeply sympathize with her in her bereavement.
